International Educational Practices

ISA AWARDS

The International School Award (ISA) is a global accreditation scheme that recognizes good practices in incorporating international dimensions in schools. The Academy's commitment to delivering high-quality education and striving to bring global competitiveness in its students helped it garner this recognition. As an ISA designated school representative, we offer our students the opportunity to learn and discover collaborative ideas all the while nurturing them in a holistic learning environment.

LIM (Leader in Me)

The Leader in Me session empowers our school community to develop a sense of responsibility, which helps them make effective and positive choices in their lives. The 7 Habits are a set of practical leadership and life improvement skills that focus on the principles of highly effective people. Facilitators from Franklin Covey's "Leader in Me" organized a three-day training program for academic and non-academic members of the institution to implement the 7 Habits.

CAREER COUNSELLING

The Academy School provides step-by-step guidance to the students to help them select their careers. We assist them in making informed decisions for their O and A Levels, colleges, and even universities. Counsellors eagerly provide individual and group counselling sessions to students to help them assess their core competencies and strengths.

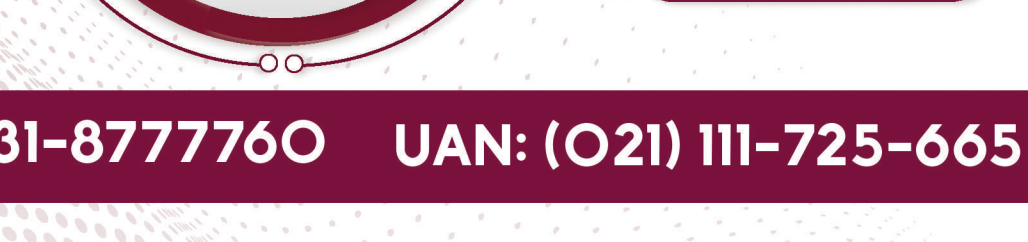

STEAM
(Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Maths)

The Academy School's perspective towards STEAM learning is to teach the basic concepts of mental maths, robotics, arts, and LEGO to help inquisitive learners create smart solutions for problems and overcome challenges, all the while creating a sense of discovery and learning. The school believes that by instilling teamwork through trial and error practices, students can be provided with a platform to enhance their learning and develop cognitive skills.
